FRIENDS OF THE
MERIDEN PUBLIC LIBRARY

WHAT DO THE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY DO?

We run a bookstore at 65 West Main Street six days a week to make good used books available to everyone for one dollar or less.

We fund the special summer library programs for Children.

We fund special musical and entertainment performances for adults.

We fund the Books for Babes program, which sends a book and library card home with each newborn baby delivered at Midstate Medical center. It also makes sure all new parents know about the literacy programs that are open to them.

We build library collections, everywhere from firehouses to senior residences.

We produce a monthly TV Show, "Heartbeat of the City," which explores the multiple roles our library plays in the community and the world beyond. This show airs Saturday evenings at 6p.m. on the Cox Communication Network.

We assist the City, in a pinch, to finish up that painting project at the library, or new rug installation, or upgrade in landscaping.

We are a very nice group of people who simply wish to stand up and be counted as supporters of the free public library system.

So link your name with ours
