WHAT ARE THE FRIENDS OF THE WESLEYAN LIBRARY?

The Friends of the Wesleyan Library are a community of readers dedicated to celebrating and enjoying books of all kinds from vellum-bound manuscripts to humble paperbacks to the latest digital innovation. The Friends' passion for books and reading is at the heart of our mission to enhance and preserve the excellent holdings of the Wesleyan Library.

WHAT DO THE FRIENDS OF THE WESLEYAN LIBRARY DO?

The Friends of the Wesleyan Library raise funds to enable the library to support important work and activities that would not otherwise be possible. Funds raised by the Friends support:

Author lectures, workshops, symposia, exhibitions, and book sales

Cataloging of hidden (currently inaccessible) collections

Special preservation projects

Publication of Check It Out, the library newsletter

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP IN THE FRIENDS OF THE WESLEYAN LIBRARY?

In addition to the satisfaction that comes from supporting the vital services of the library, members of the Friends of the Wesleyan Library also enjoy the following special privileges:

Invitations to Friends-sponsored events

Free special borrower privileges at the Wesleyan Library

Check It Out*—published three times each year

The Friends of the Wesleyan Library offer six levels of membership. These levels honor people connected to the early history of the Wesleyan Library. Membership dues are annual.

MEMBERSHIP LEVELS:

EMELINE OLIN	$1,000
GEORGE W. DAVISON	$500
CALEB T. WINCHESTER	$100
HENRY BACON	$50
EUGENIA M. HENRY	$25
DANIEL H. CHASE (for current Wesleyan undergraduates)	$10

Join us! This is an exciting time for the Friends of the Wesleyan Library. We are energized to help the Wesleyan Library meet the challenges of the 21st century. Please make your check payable to the Friends of the Wesleyan Library and send it to us at 252 Church Street, Middletown, Connecticut 06457-0108.
